QUESTIONNAIRE

• The Session School's Private Bridal Make Up Lessons are a relaxed and fun way to learn the techniques necessary to achieve flawless professional make up. Perfect if you are getting married abroad, are unable to secure a suitable make up artist for your wedding date, or prefer to apply your own make up on your special day.

Private Bridal Make Up Lessons are available either in the comfort of your own home, or in the school's bright and airy central London studio. The Session School was founded by successful session Make Up and Hair artist, Dani Guinsberg. All the school's teachers are specialist session make up artists with a range of experience working with celebrities and on well known fashion and beauty magazines. As leading industry experts, they are perfectly placed to help you design and execute your perfect bridal look and pass on tips and tricks of the trade. Learn what best compliments the tone and texture of your skin and go through your existing make up bag to find out what to keep and what to discard!

All private consultations will be provided on a completely one-to-one basis, will last for 2 hours and cost £250 per lesson. Each session will now be offered in the comfort of your own home. Dani will bring everything to you for convenience and more privacy. You will be asked to fill in a questionnaire about what you wish to achieve from your lesson and we would expect to receive your questionnaires prior to the lesson; so your lesson is tailor made to suit you.
